silver fang

what if you swapped character designs, as in Chester has a detachable head,Hugo has a torn out eye and zipper stomach, and Milo is perfectly built (or made out of wood editor's choice)

if I'm being honest, I kinda want a role swap- or like, a villain au or something but idk- I'm not good at explaining ;-; but anyways CONGRATS (I think?) (is it appropriate to say congrats....idk-) but im really upset that the comic is going to be ending soon because I really liked it- but thats okay, because I know that your going to do really well with future comics! (I hope that what I said isn't taken in a mean way-)

YOU'RE FINE ♡

1. What would it look like if the parts from every main character were stitched together into one body 2. Several hearts in one body (that was specifically meant for only one heart) 3. Both, at the same time
